Collectible Drinking Glasses: Identification And Values

Synopsis

Drinking glasses have established themselves as part of our popular culture and have commercial, cultural, and historical significance. They can be traced back to the jam, cheese, and soft drink glasses of the '30s and '40s. This factual book on the subject provides trustworthy, comprehensive value information for food product, sports, and cartoon glasses.

Customer Reviews

This 136 page volume, with prices updated for 1999 features THOUSANDS of glasses, in full color photos. A nice overview and brief history of the hobby is included. Some major topics cover from: Artists and Producers, Characters and Personalities, Fast-Food Restaurants and Food Containers, to Americana, Space Related, Superheros and Sports. Each group of glasses includes photos, a description of the glasses along with a value range. Its completely indexed for ease of use. A must have for collectors of this topic. It carries a list price of $ 17.95.

I am giving this to my mom who is an antique dealer. I/we come across small/tall glasses all the time in our travels. I thought this would be a perfect companion for her! sometimes we see the same ole thing..but sometimes you don't, and it would be nice to have a reference. so this is perfect! this particular book was in great condition too!

I was a little disappointed in the book. It was mostly "character-related" glasses. The pictures are too small. It's nice that they are in full-color, but I don't want to have to use a magnifying glass to actually see what is on them! The pictures are provided in "plates." One example is a 3-5/8" wide x 1-5/8" wide plate showing 5 glasses and 6 mugs. For even better perspective, the height of the actual pictures referred to herein range from 1/4" to 5/8".

I love buying expensive books for almost nothing. This is the way to go. Book is perfect for my needs
