Relaxing Over Afternoon Tea (Abbey Cooks Entertain Book 3)

Synopsis

If there is one great contribution that the English have made to entertaining, it has to be the invention of Afternoon Tea. No longer just for grannies and tourists, young ladies and many busy professionals are now making time to relax with a cup of tea, lovely treats and quiet conversation. Relaxing Over Afternoon provides guidance on hosting your own private tea party or large fundraiser, as a great way to gather friends and share confidences. Learn proper etiquette with tips to prepare you for a dream trip to a famous tea house in London, or to visit one of the many tea shops springing up all around you. The book is filled with wonderful traditional recipes, enjoyed just as much 100 years ago as they are today. And a word of advice if someone calls it High Tea, they don't know the history and traditions of this lovely pastime.

Customer Reviews

The author's constant peppering of her own non medical and uninformed opinions on what is "healthy" is distracting. Otherwise the recipes and history are interesting.

Lovely book to read as well some yummy sounding recipes for a true Afternoon Tea. As a big fan of Downton Abbey, I appreciate both the lovely photographs and stories.

it was a gift
